ST. JOHN LUTHERAN CHURCH NEWSLETTER

VOLUME 37 ISSUE 11 NOVEMBER 2023

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Revisit the Catechism

Martin Luther wrote: "It is not many books that make people learned or even much reading. It is, rather, a good book frequently read, no matter how small it is, that makes a person learned in the Scriptures and upright." (Letter: To the Christian Nobility of the German Nation)

This is certainly true of the catechism—Luther's Small Catechism. The catechism is an excellent go-to book to help us understand the Word of God. It is a teacher and school in the basics of the Christian faith. It is often the first place pastors go to when looking at a text for a sermon. It is a tremendous resource that helps to explain what the Word of God says.

A few situations lately have confirmed the catechism as a great resource for our understanding of faith and life. This is true in the current conflict in the middle east. There are Christians and Christian groups that think about Israel in ways different than what the Bible teaches. When it comes to the Biblical understanding of who the people of God are, the Word of God tells us that it is believers—those who believe in the Lord Jesus Christ as Savior and God—and they are found all over the world.

In the Apostles' Creed we confess: "I believe in ... the Holy Christian Church, the communion of Saints." These are two ways of saying the same thing. The Small Catechism explanation teaches:

What is the Church? It is the Body of Christ—that is, all people whom the Spirit, by the Means of Grace, has gathered to Christ in faith throughout the world.¹

The Church is people who believe in Jesus Christ. It is NOT an earthly nation. The chosen people of God are a spiritual entity of those who believe in Jesus Christ. The promise to them of paradise is resurrection to heaven forever. The kingdom of God is not a location either. The kingdom of God is Christ's reign through His Word in His Church—His body with Him as the head and believers as the body of Christ. This too the Catechism helps us to understand.

So, two good books to read often: the Bible, God's Word, and the Small Catechism. May God's Holy Spirit grant you faith and wisdom as you read, study, and inwardly digest God's Word.

God's Blessings to you, Pastor Toensing

FROM THE ELDER'S

Brothers and sisters in Christ,

We are approaching the season of many special services, beginning with Thanksgiving. It often becomes kind of cliché to give thanks but we should all take the time to truly do so. Not only are we some of the most blessed people in the world based on material things, health care, etc but as Christians we are eternally blessed. The comfort that comes from assured salvation is no small matter and one to be truly thankful for.

The nominating committee is busy trying to fill those positions needed in our congregation. Please prayerfully consider accepting if contacted, or consider reaching out to the committee or pastor if you would like to take a role in helping the congregation.

In Christ's peace, The Elders

St. John Lutheran 150th Anniversary Celebration

St. John will be joyfully celebrating it's 150th Anniversary all through the 2024 year. The theme for our 150th Anniversary celebration comes from Psalm 100:5, "The Lord's faithfulness continues through all generations." Many activities are being planned for the year.

Our formal Anniversary Celebration will be held on Sunday, October 13, with Dr. Rev. Sommerfeld preaching for our 9 a.m. service and a meal following. Mark your calendars now for this special day.

In the meantime, we invite you to the first two events of the year.

On the first Sunday of 2024, January 7, our worship service will include a kick off of our celebration year. We will have some special moments during the service as we dedicate our year to this special celebration. Worship will be followed with a soup and cinnamon roll luncheon.

On Sunday, February 25, we will be blessed to have Concordia's Men's Chorus with us providing special music during worship that morning. We will be recognizing our teen/young adults generation on this day as well. Following worship, you are welcome to join us for a brunch potluck immediately after the worship service. We simply ask you to bring a breakfast/brunch item to share. Hot dishes are especially helpful.
